Puma Exploration Signs Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) With Pabineau First Nation, New Brunswick, Canada

On August 3, 2021, Puma announced the signature of a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) with Pabineau First Nation – Oinpegitjoig L’Noeigati (PFN) (<https://pabineaufirstnation.ca/>) to collaborate on mutually beneficial initiatives in mining exploration in the traditional territory of Pabineau First Nation in New Brunswick. The Pabineau First Nation is a progressive Mig’maq community located along the beautiful Nepisiquit river near Bathurst, New Brunswick. The community is governed by Chief Terry Richardson and Councillors Susan Motty, Carolyn Fraser and James Richardson.

The objective and intent of both parties, in forming this working relationship, is to complement each other’s strengths and combine skill sets that shall benefit the group as a whole and pursue projects useful to both Pabineau First Nation and Puma Exploration. The focus of all business of the Pabineau First Nation is on balancing the quadruple bottom line of environmental, economic, cultural, and social activities. The Pabineau First Nation believes that partnership is the key to success and is a strong supporter of economic development for the region.

Puma has initiated discussions and dialogue with the local first nations and surrounding communities to build a long-term, friendly and peaceful relationships. Marcel Robillard, CEO, of Puma Exploration stated that Puma understands the importance of engaging First Nations on their traditional territory and looks forward to more engagement as the project progresses. The MOU shall remain in force and effect for one year, and may continue to be renewed year-to-year unless terminated by one of the signatories.
